Struggling with safety? Frustrated with your staff and results? Not sure where to start or what to do? Or perhaps you want to move from good to great? Maybe even wrestling with how to maintain a great safety track record! Wherever your company stands today, this webinar can help you energize your team's safety efforts.

OECS has been in the safety consulting business for 30 years. We've formulated an approach that we've seen work effectively with hundreds of companies like yours, for both manufacturing and construction companies that are small, medium and large in size — with experienced safety personnel or without!

We've seen time and time again that what it takes to ignite this change is a commitment from leaders like you. As a result, your company can reap the enormous benefits from a strong safety culture. Including a reduction in injury and illness, higher employee retention, cost savings and bottom-line growth.

This webinar, called the 5 C's of Workplace Safety, is based on a book soon to be released by OECS and will cover:

- Commitment: Starts at the top with leadership
- Compliance: Setting the foundation for safety success
- Culture: Understanding how you build a strong culture
- Champions: Finding and empowering them
- Costs: Getting the facts on the business case for safety

Join us for this FREE webinar and learn about a framework that can help simplify safety for you.
