

OECS Can Provide the Expertise Your Business Needs

Our Certified Industrial Hygienist and Safety Professionals will work with you to ensure your workers are protected and your business is in compliance. Services include:

Exposure Assessments

- Investigate air quality concerns
- Air sampling to assess worker exposure to air contaminants such as metals, welding fume, particulates, solvent vapors, oil mists, asbestos, lead
- Required compliance monitoring and training
- Noise and heat stress
- Assessment strategy
- Management of assessment data
- Bloodborne pathogens exposure control
- Spray booth & local exhaust ventilation evaluation
- Job hazard analysis

Program Compliance Assistance

- Respiratory protection
- PPE
- Hazard communication/Right-to-Know
- Hearing conservation
- Bloodborne pathogens
- Hazardous waste
- Laboratory safety & chemical hygiene plan
- Other regulated substances
 - Respirable, crystalline silica
 - Lead
 - Asbestos
 - Chromium VI
 - Formaldehyde
 - Methylene Chloride
- Compliance surveys /hazard correction solutions
- Required training

Ergonomic Assessments

- Analyze work task risk factors
 - Material handling
 - Assembly, machine operation, office
- Identify solutions to minimize worker injury risk & discomfort
- Training

Let OECS help you manage compliance with environmental programs

Industrial Stormwater / SPCC

- Identify pollutant sources
- Program development
 - Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plan (SWPPP)
- Spill Prevention, Control & Countermeasure (SPCC) plan
- Training & required reporting
 - Industrial stormwater

Hazardous Waste

- Management plan requirements
- Maintain waste stream inventory
- Provide hazardous waste safety training

Emergency Planning & Community Right-to-Know (EPCRA)

- Tier II audits
- Annual Tier II reporting

Tank Compliance

- AST / UST registration