Building a Strong Safety Culture The 5 C's of Workplace Safety

Wednesday, February 15, 2023 – 11 AM to 12 PM Central time Click Here to Register

Struggling with safety? Frustrated with your staff and results? Not sure where to start or what to do? Perhaps you want to move from good to great, or maybe you're wrestling with maintaining a great safety track record! Wherever your company stands today, this webinar can help you energize your team with new ideas for building a strong safety culture.

OECS has been in the safety consulting business for 30 years. We've formulated an approach that has worked for hundreds of companies of all sizes in the manufacturing and construction industries— with or without experienced safety personnel!

A commitment from leaders like you is what it takes to ignite this change. As a result, your company can reap enormous benefits such as: A reduction in injuries and illnesses, higher employee retention, cost savings and bottom-line growth.

This FREE webinar is based on OECS' new book and will cover:

- Commitment: Starts at the top with leadership
- Compliance: Setting the foundation for safety success
- Culture: Understanding how you build a strong culture
- Champions: Finding and empowering them
- Costs: Getting the facts on the business case for safety

Join us and learn about this new framework for building a strong safety culture!

THE SPEAKERS:

Tim Sheehan, COO of OECS, is passionate about helping manufacturing and construction firms gain the safety edge so that they can reduce their risk and exposure, while ultimately paying back a healthy return. Prior to OECS, Tim was CEO of Lazydays RV, and spent 30 years at Best Buy in a variety of leadership positions. He is co-owner of OECS with his wife, Chris Naylor, who is also an Expert EOS Implementer for the EOS business growth system.

Tim Peterson, CHST. Tim is a 27-year veteran of OECS, performing thousands of employee trainings and audits across general industry and construction. As a long-time leader for OECS, Tim helps ensure the quality of OECS safety services, while he helps clients manage their regulatory issues with his extensive experience.
